7. HOW WE SHARE PERSONAL DATA

Transfer of personal data to other external recipients (controllers)

We share, where necessary, your personal data with the following recipients:

- The company or organisation that you work for, for example to manage the business relationship with the company or organisation.
- Group companies for various purposes, for example to communicate with you. Information about each group company's processing of personal data can be found on the respective group company's website. For information about which group companies that are a part of Soya Group, please visit Soya Group's website.
- Business partners, for example in connection with meetings, events and similar activities.
- External persons, with whom we communicate or otherwise interact with for the purposes described in this information.
- Recruitment companies, which we engage in connection with a recruitment process.
- Background check companies, which we engage to carry out background checks of you as a job applicant in connection with a recruitment process.
- Other recipients, for example authorities, courts and external advisors in certain situations, including to fulfil our legal obligations or to manage, defend and exercise legal claims.

The recipients with whom we share your personal data depends, among other things, on the relationship you have with us and how you interact with us.

Transfer of personal data to service providers (processors)

We also transfer personal data to service providers that we have engaged when necessary for the purposes for which we process personal data as described in this information. Examples of service providers are external IT suppliers and communication service providers.

The services providers which process personal data on our behalf and in accordance with our instructions act as data processors in relation to us. These service providers may not process your personal data for their own purposes and are legally and contractually obligated to protect your personal data in the same way as we do.

Soya Group also provides certain intra-group services, such as finance and IT services, to group companies. When Soya Group processes personal data on our behalf and in accordance with our instructions, the company acts as a processor to us. As stated above, Soya Group is also jointly responsible with us for certain processing of personal data, please see our detailed information on our processing of personal data for more information.

Where we process your personal data

We store your personal data within the EU/EEA.

In certain cases, we transfer your personal data to recipients in third countries outside the EU/EEA, for example to service providers that we engage in such third countries, or group companies and business partners in third countries.

In order to ensure an essentially equivalent level of protection for your personal data when transferred (or otherwise made available) to recipients in third countries outside of the EU/EEA, which do not provide an adequate level of protection, we normally use the EU Commission's adopted standard contractual clauses for international transfers according to decision 2021/914 and implement – in light of the law and practices of the third country – necessary supplementary measures to ensure an essentially equivalent level of protection of the personal data transferred. This to ensure that your personal data is protected regardless of where it is processed.

We also rely on so-called adequacy decisions issued by the European Commission where personal data is transferred to countries and recipients covered by such decision, please see the European Commission's website for more information on which countries that are covered by an adequacy decision. As an example, we rely on the EU-U.S. Data Privacy Framework for transfers to service providers in the United States that are certified under the framework, please see the framework website.

For more information on the safeguards that we have taken to protect your personal data, please contact us, please see contact details in Section 12 below.

8. INFORMATION ABOUT YOUR RIGHTS

You have certain rights in relation to the processing of your personal data under the GDPR.

You have the right to:

- Access to and obtain a copy of your personal data together with additional information about our processing of your personal data (please see Article 15 of the GDPR).

- Rectification of or request that we supplement your personal data if you consider that your personal data is incorrect, incomplete, or misleading (please see Article 16 of the GDPR).

- Erasure of your personal data (please see Article 17 of the GDPR).

You also have the right to:

- Object to our processing of your personal data, for example our processing of your personal data for direct marketing purposes or when we rely on a legitimate interest as the legal basis for the processing (please see Article 21 of the GDPR).

- Request that our processing of personal data is restricted, which means that you can, at least for a certain period, prevent us from processing your personal data (other than storing your personal data) (please see Article 18 of the GDPR)

- Receive a copy of the personal data that you have provided to us in a structured and commonly used format and, where it is technically feasible, request that the personal data is transferred directly to an external recipient (data portability) (please see Article 20 of the GDPR).

- Withdraw your consent to the processing of personal data based on your consent (please see Article 7 of the GDPR).

- Lodge a complaint with your supervisory authority. In Sweden, we are under the supervision of the Swedish Authority for Privacy Protection (IMY).

Please note that certain rights only apply in certain situations, and that there are several exceptions to certain rights. For more information about your rights under the GDPR, please see the information available on IMY's website.

Automated individual decision-making

We do not carry out any automated individual decision-making that produces legal effects or otherwise significantly affects you.

9. IF YOU WISH TO EXERCISE YOUR RIGHTS

If you wish to exercise your rights, please see the contact information in Section 12 below.

If possible, please use the e-mail address that you may have registered with us or used when you have been in contact with us. This makes it easier to handle your request.

We normally respond to your request as soon as possible and normally within one month

We will respond to your request as soon as possible and normally within one month of receiving your request. However, if your request is complex or if you have made multiple requests, we may need additional time to process your request. In such a case, we will inform you of this and the reason for the extension no later than one month from the date we received your request.

If for any reason we are unable to comply with your request, in whole or in part, we will inform you of this and the reason why we are unable to comply with your request. You will receive such information within one month from the time we receive your request. If you have submitted your request electronically, for example by contacting us by e-mail, we will respond to the request electronically, unless you request otherwise.

We need to confirm your identity in order to respond to your request

When you make a request to exercise your rights, we need to confirm your identity to ensure that you are no other than who you claim to be. This is to avoid, for example, us disclosing personal data to someone unauthorised or wrongly deleting personal data.

If we do not have sufficient information to confirm your identity, we may request that you provide additional information about yourself to confirm your identity. We only request the information that is reasonable and necessary to confirm your identity. The time to respond to your request will begin once we have confirmed your identity.

10. USE OF COOKIES AND SIMILAR TECHNOLOGIES

We use cookies and similar technologies on our website. This to, among other things, collect statistics in order to better understand how the website is used. This enables us to develop and improve the website in order to create a better user experience.

In our cookie notice, you can find more information about which cookies we use on the website, for what purposes and what choices you have made in relation to the use of cookies on the website.

11. UPDATES TO THIS INFORMATION

If our processing of personal data changes, for example if we collect and process personal data for new purposes, collect additional categories of personal data or share your personal data with additional recipients than outlined in this information, we will update the information. At the top of this information, you can see when the information was last updated.

JOB APPLICANTS

Manage the recruitment process

We process your personal data to manage the recruitment process, for example to receive and review your application documents (such as CV and cover letter), to evaluate your application and to communicate with you during the recruitment process.

Categories of personal data:	Legal basis:	External recipients:
• Image and audio material • Identity information • Communication • Competence information • Contact information • Profile information	Performance of a contract (Article 6(1)(b) of the GDPR). The processing is necessary in order to take steps at your request before entering into a possible employment contract. Legitimate interest (Article 6(1)(f) GDPR). To the extent that you have not requested a specific action or where a group company is involved in the processing, the processing is necessary to satisfy our legitimate interest in managing the recruitment process. Our assessment is that this legitimate interest outweighs your interests and fundamental rights and freedoms in relation to the processing of personal data, taking into account that the processing is within a job applicant's reasonable expectations and that the impact on you is deemed to be limited, especially when you have voluntarily applied for the position in question. Special categories of personal data: Any special categories of personal data that you voluntarily provide in connection with the recruitment process, for example in application documents, we process on the basis of your explicit consent that you give in connection with the provision of such personal data. Personal identity number:	1. Recruitment companies 2. Group companies

	Personal identity number is processed for this purpose, as it is necessary to ensure that the right person is covered by the recruitment process.

Storage period:

Personal data is stored for this purpose during the recruitment process and for a period of 26 months thereafter in order to manage and defend legal claims.

Controllership:

Wallenius Water Innovation and Soya Group are joint controllers for the processing of personal data for this purpose.

Carry out and document background checks

When necessary, for example because of the position you have applied for, we process your personal data to carry out and document a background check about you. We use external background check companies for this purpose. These are separate controllers for their own processing of your personal data in order to carry out and document the background check. The background check company shares a report with us once the check is completed, which we review as part of the recruitment process.

If we intend to carry out such a background check as part of the recruitment process, we will inform you of this and obtain your acceptance to the checks.

Categories of personal data:	Legal basis:	External recipients:

Storage period:

Personal data is stored for this purpose during the recruitment process and for a period of 26 months thereafter in order to handle and respond to legal claims.

Controllership:

Wallenius Water Innovation and Soya Group are joint controllers for the processing of personal data for this purpose.

Follow up and evaluate the recruitment process

If you have applied for a position with us or have participated in a recruitment process, we process your personal data to follow up and evaluate the recruitment process, for example to produce reports and statistics on the number of applications per position.

Categories of personal data:	Legal basis:	External recipients:
• Identity information • Competence information • Contact information • Profile information	Legitimate interest (Article 6(1)(f) of the GDPR). The processing of your personal data is necessary to satisfy our legitimate interest in following up and evaluating the recruitment process. This enables us to develop and improve our recruitment process. Our assessment is that this legitimate interest outweighs your interests and fundamental rights and freedoms in relation to the processing of personal data, taking into account that the processing is within a job applicant's reasonable expectations and that the impact on you is deemed to be limited.	No external recipients.

Storage period:

Personal data is stored for this purpose during the recruitment process and for a period of twelve (12) months thereafter.

Controllership:

Wallenius Water Innovation and Soya Group are joint controllers for the processing of personal data for this purpose.

Facilitate future recruitment

If we ask if we can save your application documents after a recruitment process and you give your acceptance to this, we process your personal data to facilitate future recruitment, for example to be able to evaluate whether your profile is suitable for a future position and to contact you if a recruitment need arises that fits your profile.

Categories of personal data:	Legal basis:	External recipients:
• Image and audio material • Identity information • Communication • Competence information • Contact information • Profile information	Legitimate interest (Article 6(1)(f) of the GDPR). The processing of your personal data is necessary to satisfy our legitimate interest in facilitating future recruitment should a recruitment need arise that fits your profile. Storage period:

Personal data is stored for this purpose for a period of twelve (12) months after the recruitment process for the position you have applied for has been completed and for each additional twelve-months' period thereafter for which you have accepted that your information is kept.

Controllership:

Wallenius Water Innovation and Soya Group are joint controllers for the processing of personal data for this purpose.

REFERENCE PERSON OF A JOB APPLICANT

Carry out reference checking

If you are a reference person of a job applicant who applies for a position with us, we process your personal data to carry out reference checks as a part of the recruitment process, for example to communicate with you and collect your assessment of the job applicant.

Categories of personal data:	Legal basis:	External recipients:
• Image and audio material • Identity information • Communication • Contact information • Profile information	Legitimate interest (Article 6(1)(f) of the GDPR). The processing of your personal data is necessary to satisfy our legitimate interest in carrying out reference checks within	1. 	the framework of a recruitment process. Our assessment is that this legitimate interest outweighs your interests and fundamental rights and freedoms in relation to the processing of personal data, taking into account that the processing is within a reference person's reasonable expectations and that the impact on you is deemed to be limited.

Storage period:

Personal data is stored for this purpose during the recruitment process and for a period of 26 months thereafter in order to handle and respond to legal claims.

Controllership:

Wallenius Water Innovation and Soya Group are joint controllers for the processing of personal data for this purpose.

VISITOR

Manage visitor registration for your and our employees' safety

If you visit our offices and workplaces, we normally need to register your visit. We then process your personal data to handle visitor registration and to provide visitor badges. This is for your safety and the safety of our employees, for example if an incident occurs and to ensure that no unauthorized persons are on our premises.

Categories of personal data:	Legal basis:	External recipients:
• Image and audio material • Identity information • Contact information • Profile information	Legitimate interest (Article 6(1)(f) of the GDPR). The processing of your personal data is necessary to satisfy our legitimate interest in managing visitor registration for your safety and that of our employees. Our assessment is that this legitimate interest outweighs your interests and fundamental rights and freedoms in relation to the processing of personal data, taking into account that the legitimate interest is compelling, the processing is within a visitor's reasonable expectations and that the impact on you is deemed to be limited.	1. Group companies

Storage period:

Personal data is stored for this purpose during your visit and for a period of ten (10) days thereafter.

Controllership:

Wallenius Water Innovation and Soya Group are joint controllers for the processing of personal data for this purpose.

Camera surveillance of our premises to prevent, detect and investigate crime and for your and our employees' safety

We use camera surveillance (without sound recording) in connection with our offices and workplaces. This is to prevent, detect and investigate crimes, as well as for your and our employees' safety, for example if an incident occurs. There are clear signs indicating whether an area is covered by camera surveillance.

Categories of personal data:	Legal basis:	External recipients:
• Image material (no sound recording)	Legitimate interest (Article 6(1)(f) of the GDPR). The processing of your personal data is necessary to satisfy our legitimate interest in preventing, detecting and investigating crime and for security. Our assessment is that this legitimate interest outweighs your interests and fundamental rights and freedoms in relation to the processing of personal data, taking into account that the legitimate interest is compelling and that the processing is within a visitor's reasonable expectations. Special categories of personal data: Any special categories of personal data or personal data relating to offences (criminal data) in image material are only processed if it is necessary to manage and exercise a legal claim, for example to prepare a police report or if the material is needed in a legal process.	1. Group companies

Storage period:

Camera surveillance material is stored for up to five (5) weeks from the time of recording, after which the material is deleted or replaced. In an individual case, the camera surveillance material may be stored for a longer period of time if it is necessary, for example, to investigate an incident, file a police report or if the material is needed in a legal process.

Controllership:

Wallenius Water Innovation and Soya Group are joint controllers for the processing of personal data for this purpose.
